Missions in China

What are the Missionaries doing? is a question always being put to residents in China whether they are engaged in missionary, commercial or other work.

Few people—either Missionary or Layman—know, hence the C. L. S. has had prepared for the last seven years an annual volume, which 'no other work on China can equal for utility' and which is 'packed full of information', viz.

AN INTRODUCTION TO MANDARIN

BY

Rev. J. S. Whitewright, M.A.

This very practical work, which contains only sentences and phrases in everyday use, is the first book used by the British Chamber of Commerce students as well as by most of the other students of the Chinese Language in Shanghai, Central, West and North China.

One volume contains the English Sentences with Chinese translation in romanised (Wade's system) and the other volume gives the Chinese in character. This facilitates work with a teacher.

PREFACE

History of Directory

To its differences from all other existing lists of missionaries in China this DIRECTORY owes its publication this year in separate form. Originally included as a mere alphabetical list of Protestant missionaries in China in the China Mission Year Book for 1910, it has grown in scope, completeness, accuracy and value from year to year. From the beginning it has been compiled by Miss M. Verne McNeely, first in the offices of the Christian Literature Society and for the past two years in the offices of the China Continuation Committee. To her accurate, painstaking efforts it owes largely whatever of value it possesses. When the China Continuation Committee at the request of the Christian Literature Society undertook to edit the current edition of the YEAR BOOK, it was decided for convenience and economy to issue the DIRECTORY separately and the present editor was asked to supervise its publication.

Distinctive Features

With the changes which have been introduced this year the following constitute the distinctive features of this Directory, which make it the most useful publication of its kind in the Far East.

1. The size of the page permits its being easily carried in pocket or bag.

2. The threefold arrangement of the names enables it to serve a greater variety of uses. All names are entered:

   a. Under the Society or Mission to which the missionary is related.

   b. By the geographical location, alphabetically by provinces, cities, and by missions in each city.

   c. Alphabetically by the name of the missionary.

3. Information about SOCIETIES includes:

   a. The correct official title.

   b. The address of the principal headquarters abroad.

   c. The Chinese Name of the organization.

   d. The popular title in China, where it differs from the official name.

   e. The date of beginning work in each station.

   f. The proper initial to be used in abbreviated references, conformable to the use standardized by the World Atlas of Christian Missions and the Missions Code.

   g. The chief administrative officers in the field.

4. Information about MISSIONARIES includes.

   a. Location by mission and locality.

b. Correct titles and degrees (except, in many cases, a baccalaureate degree.)

c. Whether married or single.

d. Date of arrival (in case of married missionaries only that of the husband is given).

e. Absence from China during any portion of 1916 is indicated.

5. Information about STATIONS includes:

a. The correct romanization according to the official Postal Guide.

b. The Chinese characters for each station.

c. The date at which each Society began its work in that station.

Appreciation of Assistance

The accuracy of this list is largely dependent upon the patient courtesy of the nearly three hundred correspondents, mission secretaries and others, who have kindly corrected lists sent them, adding names, dates and titles, correcting errors, etc. The amount of labour involved may be suggested by the following facts. The DIRECTORY for 1915 showed 892 missionaries absent beside those (in the China Inland Mission list) permanently located in the homelands. Of the names in that Directory 248 were removed because of death, marriage, resignation or dismissal; 476 names were added to the lists by first arrival, return, or marriage, and 285 addresses were changed because of transfers. The total number of names entered is 5864.

Co-operation Desired

The lists are still incomplete in some items. It has not been possible to glean accurate information regarding some societies, as to (1) The addresses of administrative offices abroad, (2) Chinese name, (3) Date of beginning work in each station. With regard to missionaries information is incomplete regarding, (1) ordination, (2) Chinese name, (3) date of arrival, (4) furloughs, (5) initials, (6) titles and degrees. Not a few of these details as given are in error because of the failure of correspondents to ascertain and communicate the exact facts. Any corrections or additions will be greatly appreciated. It is hoped to add in future editions the dates of arrival of the married women, and their initials where desired.

There is the greatest difficulty in securing any information regarding some of the smaller missions and particularly of independent missionaries. Assistance in securing an improved denominational grouping will add to the value of future editions.

Map Showing Distribution

The Map Showing the Distribution of the Missionary Body prepared to accompany the Directory for 1915 has been brought up to date by Miss McNeely and may be obtained from the publishers of this volume.

Any further suggestions for the improvement of this volume will be greatly appreciated by the Editor.

CHARLES L. BOYNTON.

DIRECTORY OF MISSIONARIES IN CHINA

In the following list the name given in Jenson Type is the name under which the Society appears in the World Atlas of Christian Missions and the Missions Code. Names in Roman type only are of societies not entered in either of these books. The name in parenthesis is that which was used in the China Mission Year Book 1915, in case this differs from the form used in the World Atlas, or Missions Code, while the group under which it appears in the Year Book is given in italics. (Exceptions: The Church of the Brethren Mission has been transferred to the Baptist group from the Miscellaneous; The Swedish Missionary Society has been transferred to the Lutheran instead of the Miscellaneous, and The International Postal and Telegraph Christian Association has been transferred to the Literature group of Miscellaneous.) Where no such group is indicated, the Society was not entered in the China Mission Year Book 1915. For example: the first Society on the list appears in the World Atlas as American Advent Mission Society. The name by which it has been designated in the China Mission Year Book is American Advent Christian Mission, and in that book it has been placed under the Baptist group.

The initials in IONIC TYPE indicate the abbreviations which have been adopted by the China Continuation Committee for use in future issues of the China Mission Year Book. With one or two exceptions they are the initials used in the World Atlas and the Missions Code. Initials preceded by an asterisk (*) are those used in previous issues of the China Mission Year Book where these differ. Those enclosed in brackets are new abbreviations adopted by the China Continuation Committee. For example, in the case of the Society mentioned above, the abbreviations used for it in the World Atlas and the Missions Code are AAM, and those in the China Mission Year Book, AACM. In future the Year Book will adopt AAM.

PURE NAPTHALENE BALLS

When packing away clothes, curtains, etc. be careful to use Napthalene Balls.

SULPHATE OF AMMONIA

A most powerful fertilizer suitable for all descriptions of grasses, plants and vegetables.

Orders should be sent through local secretaries.

Supplies of best quality carefully selected, ordered from Europe and America.

We beg to tender our sincere thanks to our numerous friends for all the favours bestowed on us during the last ten years and trust by careful attention to their requirements to merit a continuance of same.

Moderate price and reasonable charges for both local and outport

Hospitals and doctors in the interior with whom we have not had the pleasure of an acquaintance are requested to give us a chance to quote prices on receipt of a description of what is required, as we are keeping a complete stock of hospital supplies, surgical instruments and dressings, etc., the quality of which we stand ready to guarantee in every way.

Owing to the constant fluctuation of prices since the outbreak of the European War, we are not in a position to submit a new price list to our friends but an old price list may be had on application to act as a guide to the line in which we deal.

As regards orders for such articles as are not within our lines, our best exertions will be used to obtain from other places and we will charge at cost price. Goods so supplied are not returnable.

Management of our Foreign Department is under the supervision of Mr. S. S. Chang, who has conducted his business in this line about a quarter of a century and was formerly connected with several big dispensaries in this city.

We beg to solicit inquiries of our friends both old and new and assure them of our prompt attention at all times to their appreciated orders.
